LSD: THE SOUL DESTROYER

By; Rev. Speaker Gerald A. Polley

We've been getting interviews from a radio station in London, England. I'd gone to bed early last night because I had to go in and do some heavy cleaning at the restaurant in the morning when they called unexpectedly. We'd talked for a couple of minutes and then they asked me to check with Jim Morrison on how he actually died. I was still half asleep, extremely open, and began to pick up immediately the strange impression that Morrison was still alive! After the phone call I continued to be confused on rather he was dead or not. Checking our reference books confirmed that he had been with The Departed for some time. Yet I still continued to receive the constant vibration "Alive! ALIVE!" and could not get back to sleep. So my Spirit Agent immediately went to work, and in a couple of hours had tracked down the hospital where Morrison was being cared for.

He is suffering from a condition we call 'Disjoined Fragmentation.' Morrison was a heavy user of LSD and this particular drug plays havoc with the Soul. The only way I can describe what has happened to him is to say, it is like each of his lives is a motion picture that has been chopped up into very small pieces, thrown in a great bin, then put through a machine a piece at a time played at random. He may say two or three words in one language, then two or three more unrelated words in another. He keeps switching back and forth from personality to personality so no coherent personality can be conversed with.

There is evidence that some of the fragments are joining together and building longer and longer periods of stability, but this is a slow process and no viable personality may reappear for two or three hundred years.

The doctors report that he has reincarnated twice, but the bodies he was born into were so deformed that they lived only a few hours.

The reason I was picking up the impression that he was alive was because this is the only binding thought in all the fragments, the only force that is holding him together.

This is the horror of drugs that people just don't understand. They damage not only the body, and the mind, but prolonged use can damage the very Spark of existence, The Soul, sometimes beyond repair.

The pleasures of a single lifetime may cause an individual hundreds even thousands of years of misery or, eternal death. The pleasure definitely isn't worth the price!

Morrison died of the combined effects of alcohol and barbiturates that literally turned his body off.

THIS IS A UNIVERSAL LIFE MINISTRY.

A SPIRITIST SPEAKS ABOUT
DENOUNCING HOMOSEXUALITY

By; Rev. Speaker Gerald A. Polley

As many of you know, we do not promote homosexuality as The Lords have taught us it does harm to the homosexual and everyone around them. We constantly caution people not to take up the practice and if they are participating in homosexual activity, to desist.

Homosexuality rarely leads to The Second Death, and because of this several have asked me why don't we just leave it alone, let the people do what they want? After one homosexual lifetime they'll learn their lesson and return to a normal way of life.

That presents a tricky little problem. Where I know that homosexuality does people damage if I don't advise them of it they could then put a marker on me, claim Soul Debt against me, because I did not advise them they were hurting themselves, and, others.

That's an odd little thing about Natural Law. It doesn't let you find convenient ways out of things. Sometimes NOT doing something is as bad as doing something.

If we know people are hurting themselves, and, others by their actions it is our duty to warn them. It is never our right to hate those who are following the wrong path, but it is our duty to do all in our Power to keep them from hurting themselves, and, others, even if what we have to say and what we have to do is not popular with the current permissive society. Much better to do the RIGHT thing, and spend eternity free of debt, than do the wrong thing and be socially acceptable. Being socially acceptable has cost many more than they have been willing to pay!

I can never understand cowardice, how a person can throw away their destiny because of fear. In the last election Ross Perot was about to make history. All the vibrations, all the indications said that he was about to become the first independent candidate in US history to win a Presidential election. But then a few screaming perverts frightened him and he dropped out of the campaign. True, he came back later, but the momentum was lost. Those few brief moments of fear changed his destiny, and perhaps the destiny of the entire world.

How many others in a moment of indecision, in a moment of doubt have walked away from their Destiny, given up their moment in history because they feared? What great things could they have accomplished had they stepped forward and faced the challenge rather than turned and fled?

If Chamberlain had stood up to Hitler, if Truman had stood against Stalin; throughout History there are so many examples. What a different world it would be if many of our leaders had gone forward instead of retreated?

**THIS WILL BE OUR LAST ISSUE UNTIL MAY, 1995! I HAVE BEEN LAID OFF 3 MONTHS EARLY. OUR CAR HAS GIVEN OUT. THERE IS MUCH MORE HAPPENING WITH ASHTAR COMMAND BUT WE SIMPLY DO NOT HAVE THE FUNDS TO KEEP GOING THROUGH THE WINTER. ONLY THE GENEROSITY OF OUR FRIENDS MADE THIS ISSUE POSSIBLE. BUT DON'T WORRY...WE WILL BE BACK...IF WE CAN DEFEAT THE DARK ONES, MAYBE EVEN BEFORE MAY!! ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE EXTENDED!**

THE SPIRITS SPEAK

This is an interview with the Spirit of Thomas Morton, one of the founders of Pagan and Wiccan religion in America. The questions are asked by Rev. Speaker Linda J. Polley, and the answers are channeled through Rev. Speaker Gerald A. Polley.

1. The first historical mention of you is in 1618 when you worked in London as a lawyer. Is it true you married your client, the widow Miller, and caused her to lose her family properties to her oldest son?

A. I will not say I CAUSED her to lose her properties, I did all in my power to PRESERVE her control of them.

2. Why did you decide to live in New England?

A. Let me just say there were those that came forward to finance my endeavors for purposes of their own. Profit and loss was not as important to them as making a foothold in the Americas.

3. How did you become leader of the colonists who decided to remain in Massachusettes, and not go with Captain Wollaston to Virginia?

A. I was the most able among them, therefore, they chose me to be their steward.

4. What was it like for you to become leader of Merry Mount settlement after your career in London didn't do well?

A. It did not matter much to me as I was, how do you say in this day...a front man, one paid to make a noise to distract the authorities from those doing the real work.

5. Was it easy to establish trade with the Native Americans?

A. VERY! If you treated them fairly they were most willing to barter with you. Our reputation quickly spread among the natives as ones who gave quality and quantity for their goods.

6. Did you trade alcohol and firearms to the Indians?

A. Firearms, yes, spirits, only small amounts to be sociable.

7. Were the other colonists more afraid of this so used the Maypole as an excuse to be rid of you?

A. The other colonists were afraid of anyone creating a fair relationship with the natives. They were afraid if the Natives became their equals, they would be forced to either start dealing with them honestly and fairly, or to withdraw.

8. Why did you scorn the advice of Plymouth leaders and representatives when they wrote you in 1628?

A. This is what I was ordered to do by those backing me.

9. How did you feel about being sent back to England a prisoner?

A. How would anyone feel about such things; disgusted! And I considered it most unjust.

10. How did you manage to go without trial in England?

A. My backers had a considerable amount of influence.

(Cont'd Top, Next Column)

11. Did you have a motive behind becoming friends with English courtier Sir Ferdinando Gorges who had land in New England?

A. Not in particular. He was just someone to associate with.

12. Why did you return to your New England home?

A. That was what I was told to do.

13. What did you do that made the Indians angry at you?

A. I did nothing. Standish and his party stole some goods that were meant for the Indians but the Indians did not understand that the failure to deliver was not my doing.

14. While you were in England the second time, was all you did plan to ruin the Seperatists' good fortune?

A. As much as possible!

15. Why were you arrested the last time in 1644?

A. Let us just say I was plowing sacred fields, becoming friendly with certain people that the authorities did not approve of.

16. Did you enjoy living in Maine on being banished from Boston in 1645?

A. I enjoyed being as far away from the hypocrites as I could get! If I could have fled to another world at that time, I would have done so!

17. What do you think of the Puritans now?

A. The same thing I thought of them then... stupid, hypocritical, overbearing, unjust, cruel, unGodly. I could fill a page!

18. Would you call your religious beliefs Pagan or Wiccan?

A. Well, to tell you the truth, religion didn't mean much to me at all. But I did rather enjoy the practices of my associates, and their abundant kindness. They had a great understanding of The Old Ways.

19. Why did you erect the Maypole?

A. To defy the Puritan authorities to force them to take actions against me, and to bring them to the attention of the English authorities.

20. What there is mentioned of you in history books seems to indicate you were a sneaky, scheming, selfish person only living for revenge. Is this true?

A. This was a carefully created persona for the Puritan community. Others knew full well my true character.

21. What is your opinion of modern Paganism?

A. Confused and disorganized, but often sincere, being used by some for sinister purposes, but by others to be in harmony with all.

22. What was the cause of your death?

A. I do not know exactly. From the after effects those in Spirit said I had a ruptured appendix. Of course in my day this was fatal.

23. What do you do now in The Spirit World?

A. I do not know if it has been explained before. I am a radio monitor and transferrer. I have a companion in the material world that listens to a certain radio station all day. I pick this up from the material world and transfer it to the Spiritual World so Those in The Spirit World can keep in touch with Their old community. The work is interesting, though it gets a little boring at times.

24. Do you have a message for our readers?

A. Only this...beware of those who use religion to separate their people from the community. Any church that must shut its believers in and keep all others out is not inspired by God, but is the petty desires of man. Not to say that good religious people should not live in harmonious groups, but those groups should be strong enough to survive contact with the outside world without temptation.

25. Do you feel your mission was successful?

A. It accomplished much. If we had broken the Puritan's power sooner, it would've been better, but it began to undermine their power and that is the important thing. As your people say, the mightiest of all fortresses can be taken apart, stone by stone, until there is nothing left but an empty field. We were very good at removing stones!

26. Will you be able to answer more questions later?

A. I would be able, but unless they were really REALLY important I would prefer not to. I prefer to quietly do my work and be unnoticed.

We sincerely thank Thomas Morton for this interview, and apologize for the loss of the first interview we did with him last January. We also thank our Agents in Spirit for convincing him to come back, as he was very angry with us about the loss of the other material. We promise to do our best never to lose Spirits' precious Work again!

Our next interview in MAY, 1995, will be a reprint of our work from Adolph Hitler, as the 50th Anniversary of the fall of Nazi Germany is approaching. We wish to redo this important Work.

GRAND ALLIANCE STRIPS VOODOO PRIESTS OF THEIR POWER

The Grand Alliance has asked me to announce to the world that all Voodoo priests in Haiti that supported the military hunta have been stripped of all their power and marked for punishment because of their involvement in the evils that have been happening there.

Not only the Voodoo priests but any other religious leaders that supported the hunta and the suppression of the people are stripped of their rank and authority and marked for destruction. The Grand Alliance also does not recognize the amnesty promised by Jimmy Carter to the hunta's leaders, but will do all in Their Power to bring these evil men to justice.

ALONG THE LIFELINES

Our Work sometimes presents some particular problems. One of those we often run into is someone will request an interview with a certain individual in The Spirit Realm who has had several famous lifetimes. It is very difficult for people to switch back and forth from one personality to another so they often split up the year and will be one person for three or four months, then, the next, and, the next.

For example, take the famed ancient sorcerer Merlin. He has also been Leonardo DaVinci, Benjamin Franklin, and Thomas Alva Edison. So he spends three months as each personality, arranging his lecturing and teaching engagements accordingly.

We have been extremely lucky at times to receive requests for information on these individuals at the time when the person was in the personality desired. Other times we have had to wait until the individual took on the personality desired, before our questions could be answered.

On occasion the person contacted has been kind enough to take on the personality desired long enough to answer our questions.

The great cooperation that we receive from the majority of individuals in The Spirit Realm makes our Work possible. Our interruptions in Their affairs is often annoying, but their understanding, Their patience and Their belief in the importance of our Work make Them willing to accept the inconveniences we present.

I hope our readers will send thoughts of gratitude and praise to Those who take time and effort to answer our sometimes silly and annoying questions. Their great love is a treasure to us all.

Manhattan, Kansas called and asked what has happened to Nichole Simpson. My Agent had given me a report on this earlier, but I wanted an update. She confirmed there has been little change in Nichole's condition. She is in a hospital in The Spirit Realm. She cannot converse but only sits rocking back and forth and saying "Why? Why?"

From time to time she disappears from the hospital and returns to the material realm to visit her children, then haunts the dreams of the one responsible for her present condition. She is returned to The Spirit Realm each morning by her friend who died with her, who seems to have a better grasp of what has happened, and promises her that justice will be done. The doctors in the hospital report there is little evidence of the illicit drug use reported by earthly medics. That the present condition is caused by death trauma and betrayal, and recovery should begin within a year or so.

We pondered for some time whether we should give this report, but we think it only fair to let Nichole's friends and relations know she is doing well under the circumstances and should make a complete recovery in a few years.

And, like a passing thought, she fled
In light away.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

ASHTARIAN STUPIDITY

By; Rev. Speaker Gerald A. Polley

Apparently Ashtar Command did not get the message that they were not to enter this sector after their last encounter with The Galactic Forces. They launched a major attack on a Galactic outpost crucial for the defense of this sector.

After three days of serious fighting sufficient forces arrived to drive the Ashtarrians back into their own sectors. There was severe damage and many wounded. But miraculously only three members of The Galactic Forces were killed. Ashtar Command claimed that this action was not ordered by their United Government, but was taken on by some rebel generals angry at their last humiliation.

However, The Galactic Forces did not believe these claims and sent an agent to me asking my suggestion for a counterstrike. I told them I would attack and seize ten Ashtarrian outposts, and take them over permanently. I would gather three-hundred of the most influential Ashtarrians captured from these outposts and their families, and surgically sterilize all of them. Then, I would scatter these and the rest of the Ashtarrian populations from the outposts throughout all the rest of the Galactic Community, forcing them to intermarry with the native populations of those worlds, (something the Ashtarrians find disgusting.)

I would hope I told the Galactic Representative, this would impress on the Ashtarrian Forces that The Galactic Community means business and their aggression would stop.

The Galactic Community seems to have liked my suggestion as they have carried it out to the letter. I understand because of this action The Ashtarrians have given me a new title; "Butcher Of The Unborn, Murderer Of Generations," and that they have also put a price on my head; a Dowl Ship (whatever in the hell that is!) has been promised to whoever can rid the galaxy of my foulness. But The Galactic Community has made it quite clear anyone collecting this prize and his world would not exist long to enjoy it. So, I'm not too concerned!

Have you ever dreamed something over and over again? I've been having a dream like that. I dream this German doctor comes to me; a short stout man, with blue eyes and gray hair, and wire-rimmed glasses. He always travels with his beautiful daughter, who's about 5'8" and puts Marilyn Monroe to shame. He also has two big, blonde, blue-eyed bodyguards who'd make 'Conan The Barbarian' and 'The Terminator' look like whimps!

The doctor comes to me in the dream and asks me an ancient riddle. "How can the wolf's fangs be dangerous, even in death?" and when I give him the answer he starts giving us everything we need for our Work...cars, houses, secretaries; he even brings four of these blond Sampsons and says, "These are Fendar. They are now yours. They live for you, they die for you. Should any man offend you they will rip out his heart and hand it to you."

If anybody's ever met this guy I'd really like to meet him in the flesh. Of course if I did, I'd probably have a heart attack. But there's some dreams you really DO wish would come true!

LAWS OF THE OLD WORLDS

Part 6

JUVENILE LAWS

Now here is a rather strange idea that seems rather peculiar to the human race; separate laws for the young, special treatment for those below a certain age. Such ideas did not exist on The Old Worlds, and would have been found to be rather ignorant.

In The Hashon belief, all persons were born knowing right and wrong, that it was the natural tendency of all to do good, that it was The Dark Ones that taught people to hurt one-another and established evil societies. That it was the responsibility of all to turn from The Darkness and return to The Light. That youths who committed evil were totally responsible for their acts because within themselves they knew what they were doing was wrong.

In The Holy Godden Empire the idea was almost identical, except they believed that God instilled an understanding of right and wrong in everyone at birth.

This strange human idea that a person can be guiltless because they could not understand what they were doing would be very odd to members of The Old Races, very strange, indeed!

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE SPIRIT OF AN ATHEIST

Greetings!

My name is Duma, I am rather strange for one to communicate from The Spirit Realm. For all intents and purposes I am an atheist. I believe in no Gods, or, Lords. I lived both my material life and my Spiritual Life as I see fit. I never bothered others and never expected them to bother me. I lived a good and honorable life, and find that I am readily welcome wherever I go.

I do not see why people have to have all the trappings of religion in order to get along with others.

Why must we fear some sort of punishment in order to be kind to others? Why must we seek some kind of reward for doing what we should do in the first place? Why must we depend on forces from outside of ourselves to accomplish our goals? Do we not have strengths and abilities of our own that will stand us well?

What is the nature of this need always to desire more? Why can we not be content with what we have and who we are? Perhaps I am an oddity, because I was never bothered by these desires. Perhaps someone, someday, can give me a satisfactory answer why I should be but as of yet, no one has, and I do not see the possibility that they will.

My words are simple, but perhaps they are words you would like to ponder.

REASONABLE BASEBALL

To say that Babe Ruth and the other old time baseball players are angry about the current baseball strike is a gross understatement! A much more practical statement could be that they are enraged by the current situation, but what is their solution to the current dilemma?

First of all, They want an end to the draft system, which they consider legal slavery. They want each Player to be free to choose where he wants to play and that no player may be traded to any other team without his consent.

Then, they want a salary cap, that no player may receive a salary in excess of a million dollars a year.

But to make the game competitive they want a bonus system where pitchers would be paid for each game won, and batters would be paid extra for each home run, triple, double, or, single, these bonuses not paid for by the individual teams, but by a general fund paid into by the individual teams, on a percentage of their profits. This would make a fair and just system which would be fair both to the owners, the players, and end the decades of owner abuse that has ruined the sport for many players who loved the game but hated the tyranny which they were forced by corrupt governments to play under.

I don't know. I could care less about sports. I don't care if they have baseball or not. But for the people that enjoy it I think The Old Timers have some pretty practical ideas. With a guaranteed million dollars a year and bonuses I should think that would be enough to bring anyone into the game. Of course I'm not greedy like some. I suppose others would find this proposal ludicrous. Each to their own!

OLD SOULS, NEW BODIES

Reincarnation is one of the basic principles of our belief but it produces peculiar problems for our Work. When an interview is requested for someone who has reincarnated it is sometimes very difficult to arrange a time when the person's physical form is asleep and the particular part of them that we wish to interview may come to us.

It is not so difficult when a person is a young child and may go to bed or nap without being questioned, at odd hours. But with an adult it is sometimes difficult to do these things without arousing suspicions or fears in their loved ones. But if we were not able to contact Spirits who have reincarnated our Work would be virtually impossible, as so many of the important ones have returned to the living to take part in the coming age of Awakening.

The Wisdom of These Great Souls would not be available to the living if we were not able to reach Them. Their Wisdom would be lost for many years except for the few sharing it in the vicinity of Their new forms.

We submitted "THE BOOK OF THE NAZARENE" to Llewellyn Publications, but they rejected it. Now Blue Dolphin Publications is considering it. Hopefully we'll find someone. Our Christian Friends in Spirit know we're trying.

In war truth is the first thing to die.
